

Questions for Lt. William Sutherland:

- 1.) When does Lt. Sutherland say the regulars began their march?
- 2.) What does he hear that he finds so unusual? What does it mean?
- 3.) Why might the British soldiers be nervous as they approached Lexington?
- 4.) What did Lt. Sutherland see as the British column approached Concord?
- 5.) What did the colonists do as the British marched nearer? Where did they go?
- 6.) When the British crossed the North Bridge, they left two companies at the Bridge. Why was this necessary?
- 7.) How does Lt. Sutherland describe the colonists as they marched down upon the regulars at the bridge?
- 8.) What does Lt. Sutherland start doing to the bridge?
- 9.) As Captain Laurie was directing his troops in the defense of the bridge, what does Lt. Sutherland do? What does he “beg” of the men? Is he successful?
- 10.) According to Lt. Sutherland, who fires first?
- 11.) What happens to Lt. Sutherland?

12.) What does Lt. Sutherland say happened to one of the British dead?

13.) What does Lt. Sutherland say about the colonial casualties?

14.) Does Lt. Sutherland make it clear who won the battle?